Making a truly excellent lager is no easy journey. We've spent years ascending the steep and treacherous inclines of pilsner-craft, fine-tuning our approach until we finally arrived at what you now hold in your hand: the glorious summit. Delicate aromas of noble hops precede an impossibly crisp, transcendently refreshing beverage, meticulously layered with Saaz and Tett nang hops and virtually guaranteed to make you say something to the effect of, "Hey, this is pretty good." Enjoy, friend.
